Lady-in-Waiting Guidelines

Congratulations, you have just been chosen as Miss Rodeo Oklahoma! The pride and honor of wearing this crown brings with it a tremendous amount of responsibilities. Be sure to read your contract carefully. When you sign your contract, you will be accepting the challenge of not only representing the PRCA and the sport of rodeo, but also the great State of Oklahoma and the ORPC! You will touch the lives of thousands of people across the United States, and you will become a role model to hundreds of younger children. Wear your crown proudly!

Remember that by signing your contract, you will be accepting the position of Miss Rodeo Oklahoma. You will report directly to the Miss Rodeo America National Director from Oklahoma, who along with the ORPC Board of Directors will guide and direct your efforts during your reign.

Although you won the Miss Rodeo Oklahoma pageant in June of this year, you will not receive the official title until January 1st. Until that time, you will be referred to as Miss Rodeo Oklahoma/Lady-in-Waiting. It is very important that you remember the current Miss Rodeo Oklahoma has another seven months of her reign. Please be respectful of her title and position as the first Lady of Oklahoma Rodeo. As Lady-In-Waiting, you should be working with the National Director or designated board member to prepare your schedule for the upcoming year. Oklahoma PRCA rodeos will take precedence over out of state appearances. The following expectations shall be fulfilled before officially taking over as Miss Rodeo Oklahoma on January 1st.

1. Prepare a report for the ORPC membership to be presented at the November ORPC, Inc. membership meeting. Your attendance is required at the November meeting held in conjunction with Miss Rodeo Oklahoma's send-off party. You are welcome, but not required to attend all other meetings in person.
2. Begin communicating with the National Director to provide updates of requirements and MRA preparations.
3. Attend the send-off party for the reigning Miss Rodeo Oklahoma in full western attire with Lady-In-Waiting crown and banner.
4. Attend the Miss Rodeo America Pageant and ALL events to watch the reigning Miss Rodeo Oklahoma compete and to meet the other states' ladies-in-waiting. The ORPC will pay for ticketed events, including 1 ticket for the royal arena table at the Fashion Show, but you are responsible for all travel expenses. You have the option of sharing a room with your parents or another Lady-in-Waiting, but you must let the National Director know your preference by October 1. Please remember that as a lady-in-waiting you are expected to dress appropriately. This includes having your hair, nails, and make-up done at all times. Your lady-in-waiting wardrobe will need to be approved by the National Director and a board member.
5. Prepare an individual sponsorship packet for approval by the National Director by September 1st. These packets may include: cover letter, ORPC information, your individual information, a draft of autograph sheet, (with picture of you in Lady-In-Waiting Crown), a schedule of your tentative appearances and your sponsorship levels.

6. You will meet with the National Director and a board member in September to discuss your MRO traveling wardrobe.
7. It is required that MRO obtains a post office box during her reign so that her physical address is not publicly listed. It is also required that a cell phone number be used for the business cards so that a reverse directory cannot be used to track physical addresses.
8. Business Cards: must have the titleholder's contact information, as well as, the National Director's contact information. Please also include the ORPC, Inc. website address. Business cards are due by October 1st to National Director for approval.
9. With the direction of the National Director, or designated ORPC member, MRO must create announcer cards. These cards will include name, title, hometown and 1 or 2 fun facts in bullet point format and are to be given to announcers at all events. These cards should fit on a 4x6 or 5x7 note card and are due to National Director for approval by October 1st.
10. Your official autograph sheet needs to be approved by October 1 and completed by November 1. National Director approval on all aspects, including picture, are required.
11. You will not be allowed to make any appearances as Miss Rodeo Oklahoma Lady-In-Waiting, unless requested by the board.
12. The Miss Rodeo Oklahoma logo is required to appear on ALL documents, including but not limited to: autograph sheets, announcer cards, business cards, sponsorship packets, invitations, stationery and thank you cards.

Titleholder Guidelines

1. Miss Rodeo Oklahoma will abide by all rules stated in the Contract that she signed after the conclusion of the pageant.
2. Oklahoma PRCA rodeos will have first priority for scheduling. The National Director will finalize all scheduling. If you choose to make other appearances, you are REQUIRED to inform your National Director and provide all contact information on an appearance sheet. If you want the National Director to contact others for potential appearances, you must provide the National Director with contact information.
3. The titleholder is responsible for reliable transportation to all functions. Proof of insurance will be required for that vehicle. Safe driving and clean vehicles are required at all times.
4. No males, other than immediate family members, shall accompany the titleholder to, from or during events that she is attending as MRO. During the MRO reign, MRO may not cohabit with anyone of the opposite sex other than an immediate family member. In addition, if you have a sponsored vehicle or your name and title on your personal vehicle, your boyfriend shall not ride in the vehicle with you at any time.

5. As Miss Rodeo Oklahoma, it is important that you dress appropriately in western attire, crown, banner and be perfectly groomed at all times for all public appearances. This includes hair styled neatly, nails manicured and makeup on.
6. MRO may not have any visible tattoos or facial piercings at any time during her reign.
7. Your wardrobe must be age appropriate, no cleavage, bralessness, panty lines (dress or Wranglers) or tank tops at any event or function. Miss Rodeo Oklahoma is advised and expected to follow advice from the National Director on her clothing choices and styles.
8. The ORPC will purchase a Miss Rodeo America Associate Membership for Miss Rodeo Oklahoma Lady-In-Waiting.
9. MRO is not to attend any rodeo dances. In addition, MRO should recognize that a bar, club, or tavern is not an appropriate environment for a state titleholder even if she removes her hat, crown and banner.
10. Proper phone etiquette must be used at all times! If you do not understand proper phone etiquette, call the National Director. MRO should keep cell phone turned on silent during all appearances. At no time should MRO answer her phone or text during an appearance. MRO is not allowed to carry her phone where it is visible or partially visible. In addition, all initial contact for an appearance should be a phone call, not text.
11. Clean Crown, banner, buckle and boots must be worn for all appearances. An appearance is defined as ANY place where you might expect to meet another person interested in speaking to MRO or looking at MRO. This includes ORPC meetings and travel to and from appearances.
12. Dark, pressed and starched blue jeans are permitted when in travel status, under chaps or where appropriate. Faded blue jeans or jeans with holes are not permitted. The titleholder will receive one warning regarding inappropriate blue jeans. The second violation will result in the titleholder being required to wear only colored jeans.
13. The National Director must approve the titleholder's Miss Rodeo America Pageant Application and Pageant Program Ad before it is submitted to MRA. MRO must purchase a full-page color ad in the MRA Program. The current price of $1,000 is subject to change.
14. Miss Rodeo Oklahoma is permitted to blog about travels and experiences as Miss Rodeo Oklahoma. In addition, Miss Rodeo Oklahoma may have a Miss Rodeo Oklahoma Facebook page, a LinkedIn account, an Instagram account and a Twitter account, all of which must be used solely to promote Miss Rodeo Oklahoma. Appropriate privacy settings must be used.
15. The National Director and/or appointed ORPC Board Member must approve the titleholder's Miss Rodeo America wardrobe by October 1. The ORPC does not require all new clothes to be made but must approve all clothing choices. It is strongly suggested to plan ahead for MRA wardrobe.
16. The MRO titleholder must assume financial responsibility for all preparations to represent Oklahoma during her reign, as well as, at the Miss Rodeo America Pageant and for travel and expenses incurred during her reign. FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE IS NOT GUARANTEED. The ORPC will provide 2 tickets to the Royal Arena Table at the MRA Fashion Show for the titleholder's parents.

17. MRO may not compete at any rodeo as a paying contestant where she is making an appearance.
18. MRO must represent Oklahoma to the best of her ability throughout her reign and while competing at the Miss Rodeo America Pageant.
19. MRO will often stay with a host family and is expected to treat these families with the utmost respect and recommended to provide the hostess a gift. Thank you cards are always required. IN ADDITION, ALL SPONSORS, RODEO COMMITTEES AND STOCK CONTRACTORS SHOULD RECEIVE THANK YOU CARDS FOLLOWING EVERY RODEO, AS WELL AS A THANK YOU CARD FOR THE CONTACT PERSON AT ALL APPEARANCES. Furthermore, MRO is expected to arrive at all appearances a minimum of one hour before the event begins in full dress prepared with what she needs for that appearance, including but not limited to: chaps, hat, crown, banner, announcer card, and autograph sheets.
20. Following her reign, the titleholder is required to attend the new Miss Rodeo Oklahoma's Coronation Ceremony.
21. Titleholders are not permitted to contact ORPC or Pageant sponsors directly for individual sponsorship. Always check with the Development Committee Chair regarding potential sponsors.
22. Titleholders will designate a charitable organization that they will spend a minimum of 15 hours' volunteer time. If you would like, the ORPC can recommend a charitable organization. Titleholders will need to have the charitable organization approved by the board and hours recorded and reported to their National Director.
23. Should a titleholder be relieved of her title or resign during her reign, she will be ineligible to compete for any future Miss Rodeo Oklahoma competitions or gain membership with the Oklahoma Rodeo Pageants Council, Inc. The ORPC reserves the right to void the membership of family members or relatives subsequent to the dismissal of title and reserves the right to refuse future membership. In addition, all ORPC scholarships related to this title will be forfeited.
24. All titleholders and their parents must sign a Non-Disclosure Agreement at the time of contract signing.
25. Miss Rodeo Oklahoma titleholders are prohibited from consuming alcohol at appearances during their reign. Oklahoma law prohibits the consumption of alcohol by minors.
